RG104 E-1 Box 139

9/11

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., May 11, 1886.

Superintendent of U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are advised that the Honorable, the Secretary of War, has this day been requested to deliver to the U.S. Mint in your charge,

Twenty (20) Springfield Rifles,

Twelve hundred (1200) rounds of ball cartridges,

And Eight thousand (8000) rounds of Ammunition for Gatling Guns.

As I am held responsible for all Ordnance and Ordnance Stores issued to the Treasury Department and the buildings under its control, I will thank you, on the reception of the arms and ammunition mentioned

RG104 E-1 Box 139

mentioned above, to inform me of the fact.

Very respectfully,

E. B. Lyon
Chief Clerk.

RG104 E-1 Box 139

Frankford Arsenal
Philadelphia May 17, /86.

Hon. D. M. Fox.
Superintendent of the Mint.
Philadelphia.

Dear Sir: I have the honor to inclose memo. of arms & ammunition sent you, and which should reach the Mint between 10 and 10.30 A.M. to-morrow.

I also inclose the address of Mr. Lawrence whom I recommend as an experienced gunsmith, capable and thoroughly trustworthy -

Very respectfully
Your Obedient Servant
J. C. Clifford
(Capt. of Ordnance)

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 139

[Letter One:]

NM
H.

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,

May 11, 1886

Superintendent of U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are advised that the Honorable, the Secretary of War, has this day been requested to deliver to the U.S. Mint in your charge,

Twenty (20) Springfield Rifles,
Twelve hundred (1200) rounds of ball cartridges,
And Eight thousand (8000) pounds of Ammunition for Gatling Guns.

As I am held responsible for all Ordnance and Ordnance Stores issued to the Treasury Department and the buildings under its control, I will thank you, on the reception of the arms and ammunition mentioned above, to inform me of the fact.

Very respectfully,
E.B. Youmans
Chief Clerk

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 139

[Letter Two:]

Frankford Arsenal
Philadelphia

May 17, 1886

Hon. D.M. Fox,
Superintendent of the Mint,
Philadelphia.

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to inclose memo. of arms & ammunition sent you, and which should reach the Mint between 10 and 10:30 a.m. to-morrow.

I also inclose the address of Mr. Lawrence whom I recommend as an experienced gunsmith, capable and thoroughly trustworthy.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J.C. Clifford
(Capt. of Ordnance)